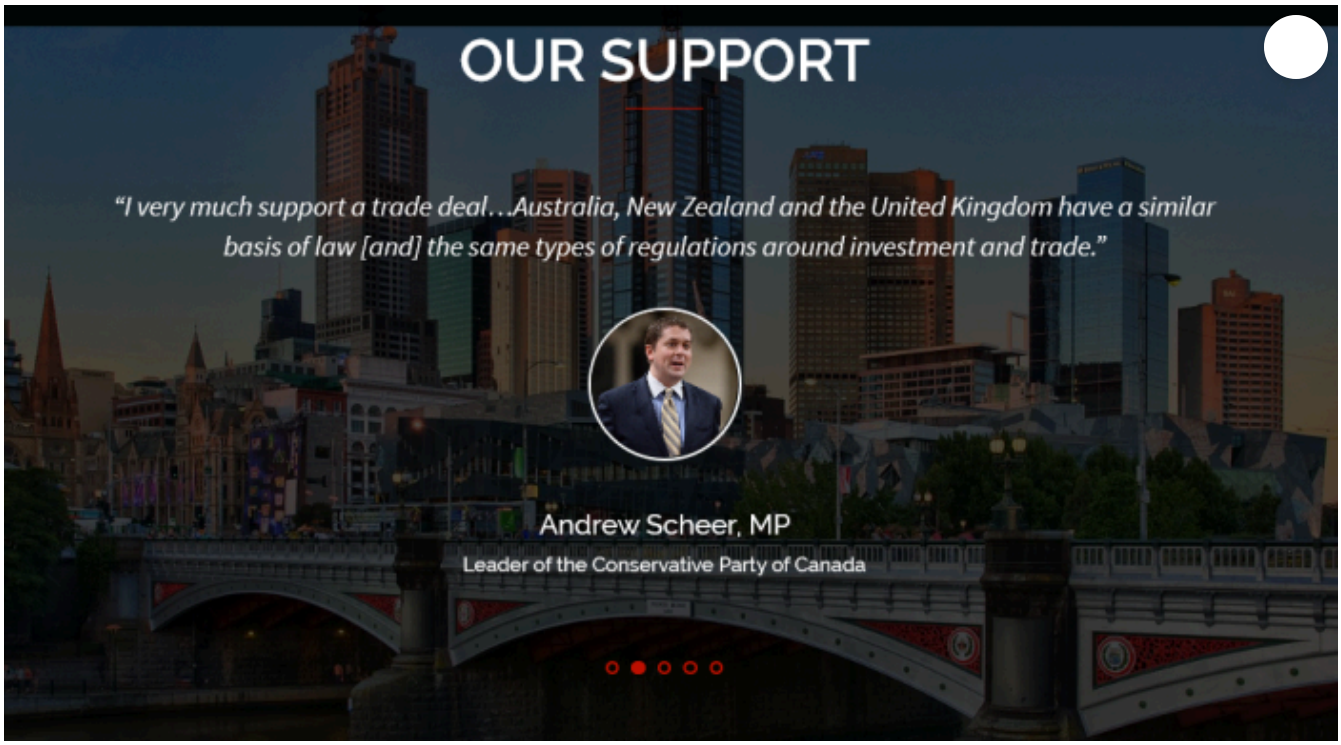
OUR SUPPORT
"It's time to be bold. Canada should propose a CANZUK deal to bring closer ties with our traditional friends; the UK, Australia and New Zealand."
Erin O'Toole, MP
Leader of the Opposition for Canada



OUR SUPPORT
“I very much support a trade deal…Australia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom have a similar basis of law [and] the same types of regulations around investment and trade.”
Andrew Scheer, MP
Leader of the Conservative Party of Canada

Canada is supposedly in the middle of a deadly health crisis. One might expect there to be a push to close national borders to the greatest extent possible. Instead, it’s full speed ahead to the one-world order.

1. Mass LEGAL Immigration In Canada

Despite what many think, LEGAL immigration into Canada is actually a much larger threat than illegal aliens, given the true scale of the replacement that is happening. What was founded as a European (British) colony is becoming unrecognizable due to forced demographic changes. There are also social, economic, environmental and voting changes to consider. See this Canadian series, and the UN programs for more detail. Politicians, the media, and so-called “experts” have no interest in coming clean on this.

Note: If there are errors in calculating the totals, please speak up. Information is of no use to the public if it isn’t accurate.

For a bit of context, keep in mind that Covid-19 is supposedly a deadly disease that has caused untold death and misery across the planet. Now, it would seem counter-intuitive to promote the open borders agenda in the middle of it. However, that is exactly what is happening.

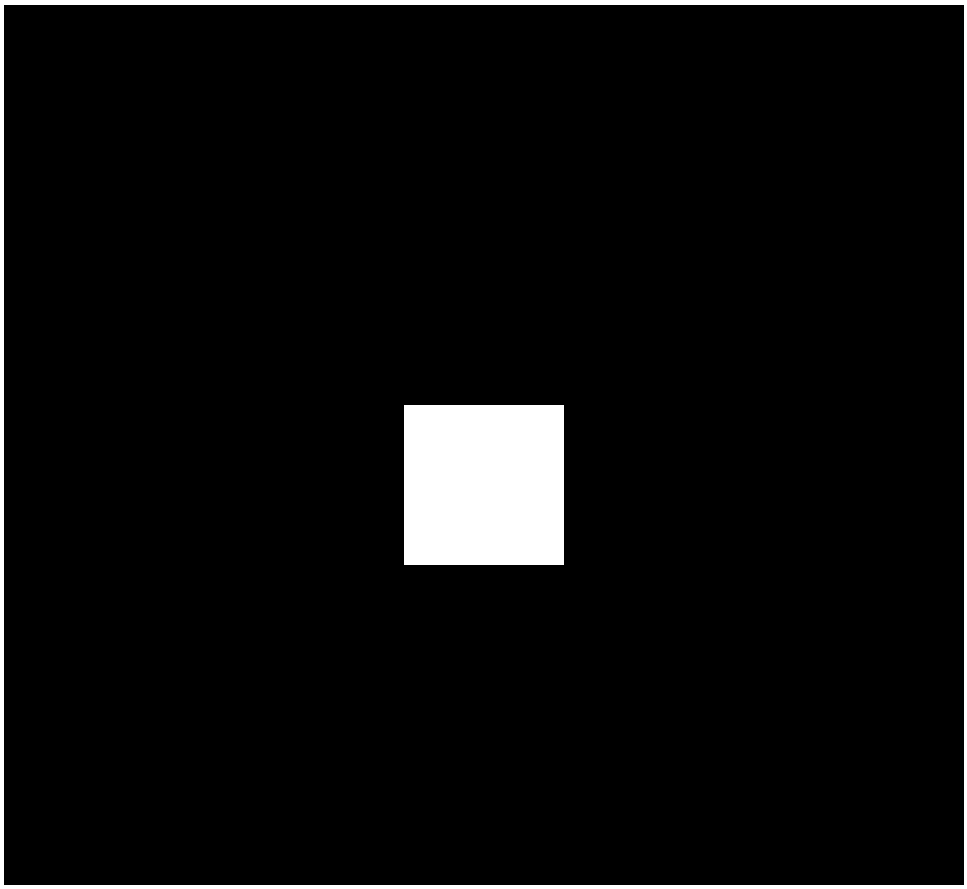
James Skinner is quite the varied political operative. It’s important to note that he was the Vice President of a Conservative Party of Canada EDA at the same time. Quite the conflict of interest.

Also, the politicians supporting CANZUK aren’t Liberals, they’re Conservatives. Skinner is using his political ties to push CPC policy towards open borders. Skinner is also an experienced lobbyist, and brings those skills to this project.

3. Bait-And-Switch #1: CANZUK V.S. UNGMC



00:00 04:02

In late 2018, the Conservative Party of Canada finally decided that it opposed the UNGMC, the United Nations Global Migration Compact. This was done just days before the agreement was scheduled to be signed. There were valid criticisms about “setting international standards” for migration.

However, this involves some serious mental gymnastics. CANZUK is literal open borders, and the CPC has that policy on its books. Worse, this would be legally binding, unlike the UN Compact.

4. Bait-And-Switch #2: Expand CANZUK Zone

This was addressed here. CANZUK is sold to the public as a free trade & open movement agreement between 4 countries. However, there are many, like Erin O’Toole, who support expanding it even further. Once it’s operational, open up to other countries.

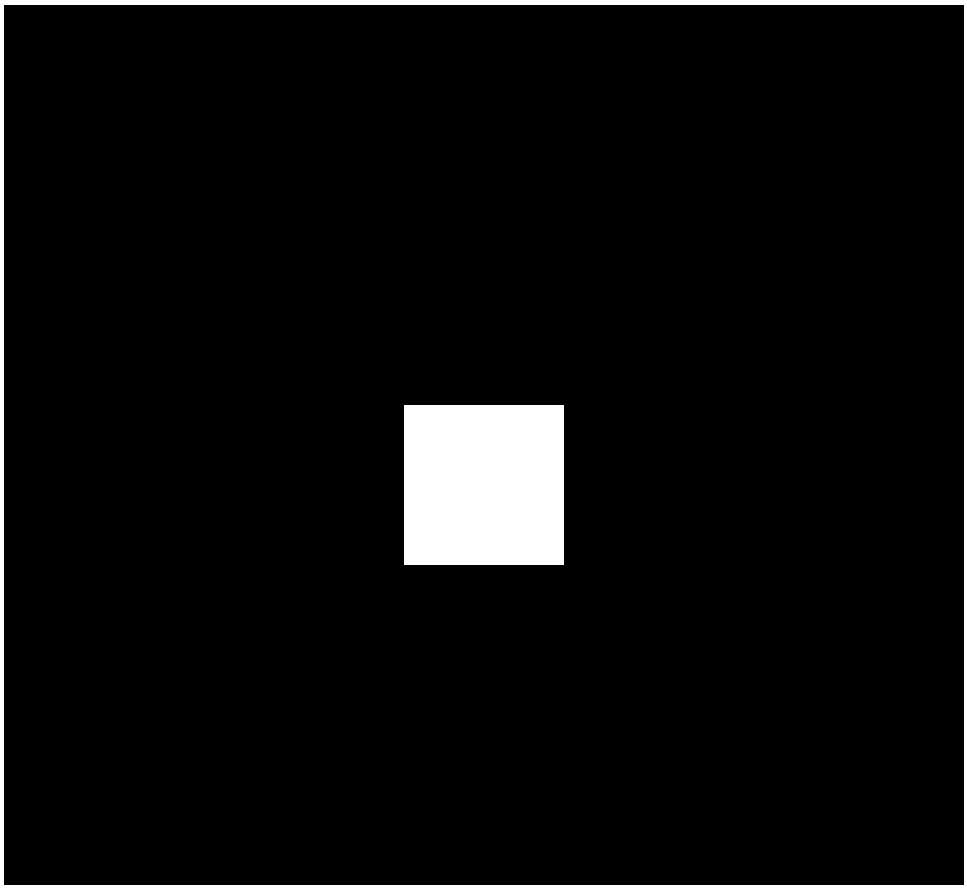
To begin with, the group was formed in 2015. The Above video of Erin O’Toole was from the 2018 CPC Policy Convention in Halifax. At that point, the Party officially adopted CANZUK. It is only AFTER this adoption that CANZUK International forms a Federal Corporation in Canada.

And it is only in the last few months that there is any “official” lobbying done on behalf of the organization. The order seems completely backwards.

The only way this makes sense is that it was all agreed to — behind closed doors — long before anything official was put into writing.

6. Bait-And-Switch #4: Countering China



00:00 00:55

Here’s another sleight of hand going on: CANZUK is currently being sold as a way to counter growing Chinese influence. This is nonsense, as CANZUK is not any sort of military agreement, simply trade and movement. Moreover, since O’Toole still supports high levels of Chinese immigration and trade, it’s unclear what he expects to accomplish.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to welcome my friend back to the House. I remind him that in June he stood in this place and asked why the government had not moved forward on this important FIPA with China. We have, and now he is still complaining once again. On CBC on the weekend, he was spreading myths about this FIPA.

The “P” in FIPA is for protection. This is about protecting Canadian exporters who are selling into that market, and it is the 30th FIPA Canada has signed over 20 years. This is good for our exporters. It is good for jobs.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank the member for that question. While she and her colleagues are surfing Facebook in their constituency weeks, our members are meeting with employers and meeting with the Canadian Manufacturers & Exporters association. These are job creators in our country who have been asking for legal certainty in their dealings with China. They are selling in that country, and this FIPA will give our employers certainty in dealing with China.

The NDP should get offline and get meeting our employers across the country.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank the member for that question, but as the member knows well, China is the second-largest economy in the world. Canadian exporters are selling to and dealing with that country on a daily basis, and the jobs created from that account for one in five jobs in Canada.

Canadian exporters have been asking for protection. The P in FIPA stands for “protection”. This will give these companies certainty in their contractual dealings in China. It is levelling the playing field, because Chinese companies already have such protections and certainty in Canadian courts. This is about securing that certainty for our exporting sector.

Got to admire the nerve. The CPC pushed for FIPA, which allowed China almost unfettered access into Canada. It was sold as an investment protection initiative, and an increase in trade. Now that Canadians want less to do with China, CANZUK is sold as a way to counter China increasing global influence.

CANZUK: A Cure For Our Healthcare Challenges?
Posted January 8, 2021
Writing for HealthyDebate.ca, Anna Wu and Priyank Tyagi explain why a healthcare agreement between Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom would improve scientific research and development, and revolutionize health services across the four countries.

Remember the panic over empty shelves of toilet paper or the sudden drug prescription limit of 30 days? Now imagine an alliance that would have allowed us to be better prepared to handle this crisis.

The COVID-19 pandemic has highlighted numerous gaps in our healthcare systems, be it issues of equity and access as evidenced by the disproportionately affected visible minorities or the inadequate security of our supply chains. The disruptions in personal protective equipment (PPE), lack of adequate testing and drug shortages have been sources of stress for frontline workers, healthcare managers and patients alike.

Our healthcare services are perennially underfunded and overstretched: the pandemic has laid bare our vulnerabilities to physician shortages, high rates of infection (nearly 20 per cent as of September 2020) among healthcare workers, increased healthcare costs, > worsening mental health, and chronically underfunded long-term care. Furthermore, the pandemic has demonstrated the lack of an effective international crisis-management system. With global and national realignments the need of the hour, CANZUK is an idea whose time has come.

Remember people buying out all the toilet paper last year? Well, guess what? If we had more open borders, with more free trade, that likely wouldn’t have happened. In fact, things would have been a lot better off. Forget about closing borders in a crisis.

One would think that in the middle of a so-called “global pandemic” that open borders ideas like CANZUK would be put on the backburner, at least for the foreseeable future. Nope. Instead, there is scarcely a mention. Funny, how that works out. It’s almost like there really is nothing serious to worry about.

In fact, scrolling through CANZUK’s many articles, there’s barely a mention at all.

Different excuses. Different lies. But the open borders agenda rolls on.

Conservatives are traitors and sell outs, so is everyone else that is anti nation state. The conservative party was high jacked along with the whole country, they are not real conservatives, they are engaged in fraud, treason is a badge of honour, so is industrial genocide, replacement migration, invasion and so call legal immigration, that is based on the illegal Multicultural Act, which is based on the illegal 1982 Constitution which has provisions for an illegal transfer of power, among other criminal provisions, genocide and treason;

Since Quebec did not sign and agree to the illegal 1982 Constitution, (thus making the provinces separatists), not Quebec, that is not authorized under the British North America Act of 1867, of which Quebec continues along with the Civil Code;

notwithstanding communist infiltration, subversion and corruption, that was augmented and amplified by the Solicitor General at the time of the PE Trudeau, who instructed the RCMP to not prosecute those national security risks, which include various nationalities, communists, homosexuals, “cultural marxists” etc and seal the records, so they had open season to corrupt and destroy law and justice, national security and defence, education, health, along with the total corruption of television and entertainment industry, news media with the ownership, control, voting, editing and censoring capabilities of foreign state control and influence of that in Canada, along with corrupt people in government who have their allegiance to a foreign criminal agency, not Canada.

The PE Trudeau treason included the sellout of the Bank of Canada, in that Treasury Bonds and debt created money was a mass production recipe of industrial and economic genocide by debt and interest of which the Conservatives are also equally if not more guilty with their treasonous trade deals, including the latest treasonous trade deals by the governing Liberal Party. The Debt created money and industrial economic genocide ruined a perfectly good and awesome country, as Canada can be one of the few self sufficient countries in the world, we can make everything here that we need. period.

During the so called covid era which is bogus, the control freaks, traitors and genocide maniacs are in their element, flights and passenger traffic and illegal / legal migration immigration and invasion is at an all time high. The Minister of Defence is to incompetent to recognize an invasion or national security threat from various countries, as he himself is not a real Canadian. In fact ;most people as MPs in government are not real Canadians and are totally unfit and disqualified for any office whatsoever. What is need is the founding people, real patriots, real character, true values, and a dedicated people for peace, order and good government, not crime, treason, genocide, war, immorality, selling out the country, debt, slavery, poverty, a wiped out industrial base, corrupt and foreign state own and controlled media…

The penalty of treason is death…notwithstanding the elimination of the treason act, or all the people in government that exempt themselves in their private club with their allegiance to a foreign criminal agency…

There is someone keeping track of all the traitors in Canada, not just America…

judgement day will be a lot different than most people think…
